Model Narration

One day, a woman was looking around the library where she worked. Most of the seats were empty, and only one elderly man was reading there. She was worried that too few people were using the library.

The next week, she worked with a colleague to make a video introducing the library. They filmed its reading areas and bookshelves and prepared to share the video on social media. They hoped it would encourage more people to visit.

A month later, many young people were reading books at the tables. The woman was pleased to see that the library had become much more popular.

A few days later, however, she noticed some visitors taking photographs and recording videos inside the library. They were talking loudly and disturbing people who were trying to read. One reader looked annoyed, while another was asking them to be quiet. The woman realized that attracting more visitors had created a new problem.

解説：時を表す表現で4コマをつなぎます。最後は「来館者は増えたが、撮影や会話が読書中の人の迷惑になっている」という新たな問題を伝えましょう。

Model Answers & 解説

No. 1 I'd be thinking, "Our video has attracted more visitors, but some of them are disturbing other people. We need clearer rules about filming and taking photographs. I should also post a reminder on our social media account."

解説：宣伝の成果 → 一部の来館者の行動による問題 → ルールの明確化、という流れです。SNSでも注意を呼びかける対策を提案しています。

No. 2 Yes, I do. Social media allows public facilities to show people what they offer at little cost. A short video can reach people who would never read a leaflet. Visitors may also share these posts with their friends.

解説：低い費用で施設を紹介できることを理由にし、動画や投稿の共有によって新しい利用者に届くことを説明しています。

No. 3 Yes, I do. Some people are so focused on getting attractive photographs that they pay little attention to what is happening around them. For example, they may spend an entire concert recording it. Putting their phones away would help them enjoy the experience more fully.

解説：撮影に集中する → 周囲への注意が減る、という理由を、コンサートの例で説明しています。最後に改善の方向も述べています。

No. 4 Not necessarily. Social media gives people quick access to different viewpoints, but false information can also spread widely. People may believe a popular post without checking its source. Access to more information does not always lead to a better understanding of events.

解説：Not necessarily は「必ずしもそうではない」という立場です。異なる意見に触れられる利点を認めつつ、誤情報や情報源を確認しない問題を説明しています。

練習の目標：難しい表現よりも「自分の答え + 理由1つ + 具体例1つ」。丸暗記せず、自分の言葉で伝えましょう。
